ADVANCED AND INDEPENDENT CERAMICS

Facilitator: Claudia Houser

If you have ever taken a pottery class, or are a current pottery student - one of these classes may be perfect for you to continue to explore clay and learn fun new techniques - or get back into this creative hobby. Opportunities to throw and handbuild, along with increased knowledge about glazes, underglaze painting, kiln tech and firing knowledge are all a part of these classes. A collaborative and creative environment with others who have a love for creating with clay is the goal, while helping each student achieve their personal pottery goals.

I JUST WANT TO MAKE SOMETHING

Instructors: Sid Paradine and Leann Thornton

Perhaps you've always wanted to try clay but don't want to face a steep learning curve until you know if you like it or not. Maybe the last time you made something was that wonky kindergarten pinch pot. This class will be student driven. You tell me what you want to make and I'll do my best to help you make it happen. I'll also tell you if your idea is unrealistic and help you find a new one. A demo of throwing be given and anyone who wishes to try their hand at it will have the opportunity. You will learn some basic facts about clay, glaze and firing and the next time you have friends over you may be able to say "Why yes, I did make that!"

GLASS STUDENTS

Specialty glass may be available for purchase from the instructor. They will work with you to be sure all glass is compatible for firing in the Art Center's kiln.

CERAMIC STUDENTS

Clay for all Art Center classes must be purchased through the Art Center's supply so all the clay being fired in our kiln is compatible when fired. This clay is available at the price of $30 for a 25 lb bag, includes the cost of the glazes and firing for enrolled students. Only artwork created by students currently enrolled in a class can be fired in the Art Center's kiln. Firing of production pottery work is also limited as space and firing time must accommodate all the ceramic department students. Possibilities need to be discussed with your instructor.

Registration Information

Our class sizes are small, partly because we have smaller size studios and also because we pride ourselves on providing lots of individual instruction. Our instructors work to build a community of artists within the art Center and will work with you as much as possible in whatever level of art you are at. If you are planning on taking a class—please register at the desk as soon as possible. Instructors cannot reserve a place in class for you—you need to make your own reservation.

Please register by calling 269-962-9511 or stop in. We are not taking PayPal payments at this time. Payments need to be made to the: Art Center of Battle Creek, 265 E. Emmett St., Battle Creek, MI 49017. We take cash, checks or credit cards (VISA and MC).

Classes cancelled for inclement weather will be rescheduled whenever possible and every effort will be made to contact students by phone.
